

Cycle route near Sakskøbing, 30 km

- Start from the Town Square in Sakskøbing with its statue of “The Beet Girls” from 1940.
- Ride along Tværvej opposite the former Town Hall, to the right along Apotekervænget and to the left along Saxes Allé.
- Just after Ellekildevej, you see the Helge Holmskov Installation with Holmskov’s statue “Life”.
- Ride along Ellekildevej, past Ellekilde School and sports halls.
- To the left is Den gamle Smedie (The Old Smithy), which is often open on Mondays.
- Ride out on Nystedvej by Saxine – the smiling water tower from 1909.
- Continue along Nystedvej and Krenkerupvej towards Krenkerup Estate. Just before you arrive at the Estate, there is a path to the side, where you can take a leisurely stroll through the Have Forest.
- Ride on towards Radsted, where you can see the 56 m high spire of Rasted Church from a great distance.
- Ride round by the Church and follow Østerbyvej and Tørstemosevej to Karlsbjerg, a 15 m high sand esker created 12,000 years ago during the Ice Age.
- Continue further along Pogemosevej passing under the motorway. Turn right just after the viaduct and follow the road through the forest and Kogangen to Berritzgård Estate.
- The trip continues along Killerupvej by the Lolle Frugts Orchards and a farm shop.
- Further ahead along Killerupvej you turn onto Degneallé and then Skovbyvej.
- At number 4 you can visit Antikgården in Taars & Galleri Pandine ( antiques and art gallery).
- Continue along Lågebrovej and Orebyvej to Oreby Harbour by the entrance to Sakskøbing Fjord.
- Just before the harbour stands Oreby Mill.
- Ride back via Orebyvej in towards Sakskøbing and see the houseboats along the harbour.
- Ride on to the Town Square, where amongst other attractions you find Hotel Sakskøbing. The role of the hotel is to provide a gastronomic showcase for the produce of Lolland-Falster.
- End the tour at Lise Ring’s ”Umbrella Girl” in the Park in front of the Church.
